

SUGGESTED CLOTHING LIST

This is a suggested list of articles, worked out over many years of experience. Use your discretion about sending more, but try not to send less. Identify all items with indelible marker or sew-on nametags. Keep a list of items you have sent to camp, and send one copy along with your child.

- 2 white all-cotton T-shirts for tie-dying
- 8-10 polo or t-shirts
- 5 pairs long pants (jeans, sweats; several light colored)
- 8 shorts
- 3 bathing suits (kids swim twice daily)
- 1 medium jacket
- 2 lightweight (sweater/jacket/sweatshirt)
- 12 underpants
- 4 pajamas/sleepwear
- 1 bathrobe
- 1 slippers or thongs
- 1 light hiking shoes or high-tops
- 2 pairs sneakers
- 1 pair rain boots (absolutely necessary)
- 1 full length raincoat with hood (absolutely necessary)
- 1 moderate dress up outfit for banquet and trip (optional)
- 1 sunhat (baseball cap or visor)
- 12 pairs socks (CLEARLY labeled; the more distinctive the better!)
- 4 sheets - 2 fitted bottom, 2 top - cot size if available
- 1 pillow + 2 pillow cases
- 2 blankets
- 10 towels, clearly labeled (first quality not required!)
- 2 washcloths
- 1 box tissues
- 1 Canteen
- 2 bars soap and soap holder
- 2 inexpensive flashlights plus extra batteries

shampoo in unbreakable container

comb/brush

toothbrush and holder, toothpaste, plastic cup

plastic toiletries bag for above items

pens/pencils; stamped stationery and postcards (pre-addressed for younger campers)

Any or all: favorite toy, books, baseball glove, games (checkers, chess, travel Scrabble, etc.), small musical instruments, inexpensive camera/film.

SLEEPING BAG (necessary for all age groups)

Insect repellent & Sunscreen

DO NOT SEND: expensive or delicate items of clothing; expensive video games; elaborate or expensive audio equipment. Small appliances (clocks, radios) MUST be battery operated.